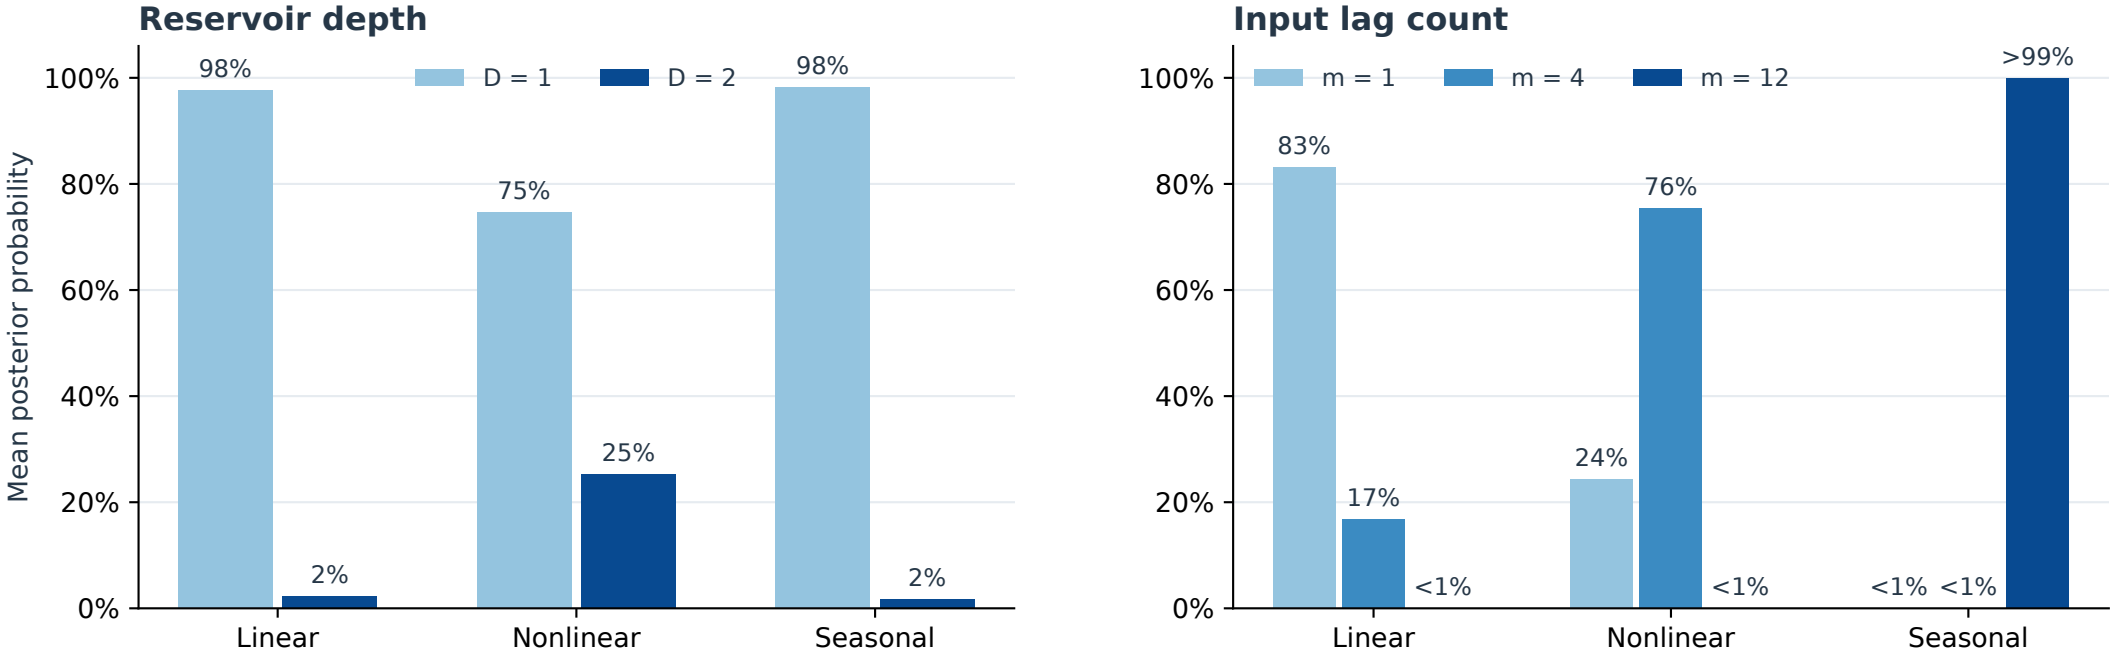
What AutoDESN selects within the prespecified bank


Probabilities averaged across series and origins. These describe predictive representations, not true DGP architecture.